All the local world of fashion and of sport is at the bench show this week—the second annual exhibition of the Topeka Kennel club—at the Auditorium. It is easy enough to tell the matrons and maidens who proceed on the theory of Love me love my dog, for they are all at the bench show, sticking around the kennels of their beloved pets for the Angel Plover will get her name. The ladies' class, for which the Elks' club offers an unusually handsome cup, attracted many entries this year. Mrs. Charles S. Cross, of Emporia, has a number of her fine bull terriers in this class. Mrs. William W. Wikidal has two collies, Topeka Sandy, one of the local prize winners of last year, and Glory Gallop, a beautiful white collie less than a year old. Mrs. Herbert Hackney exhibits her Flossie Wee and Cleopatra second, toy English spaniels of much beauty and intelligence. Miss Queen Godard entered her St. Bernard "Russell," a handsome dog with distinguished markings and gave up a trip to Florida and Cuba with her. In order to be near him and comfort him through the trials of the exhibition. Another interested attendant at the show is little Miss Elizabeth Skinner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph E. Skinner, who have some collies in the show. Other exhibitors in the ladies' class are Mrs. L. S. McCallan ("Candy"), Mrs. E. D. Dyal ("Reysa S."), Mrs. William Archer, ("Snooter"), Mrs. G. E. Stewart, ("Pussy Stewart"), Mrs. E. Marline, ("Muff"), Miss Mabel N. Betelle, ("Ned Nicholson"), Miss Florence Johnston, ("Tommy Atkins"), Miss Anna B. Stevens, ("Queen Bess"), Miss Mabel Hill, ("Queen"), and Miss M. B. Hampton, principal of the College of the Sacred Heart, who has entered her dachshund, Vinco, a familiar sight about the Bethany campus, for the ugliest dog's prize. Other entries in this class are Mrs. Hugh W. David, son's Barney, an Irish terrier, Farnham Furry, Miss Frances McClintock, Dr. and Mrs. J. C. McClintock's youngest daughter, who has her Mexican chihuahua, in the show. Miss Mildred Morton has entered her setter, Duke. Miss Marguerite Klene has a Manchester terrier, black and tan. Miss Alice Hosington is among the exhibitors with her Tuxedo III. Mrs. Charles Merriam's King Charles, ("Gipsy"), Mrs. Charles Wolff's cocker, "Sheney," and Miss V. E. Estelle Busch's setter, "Earl," are among the other entries of especial local interest.

Pursuing the club women's manifesto against the billboards the civic committee of the city federation of clubs met yesterday with Mrs. Lee Monroe to discuss the movement. On motion of Mrs. J. D. McFarland it was decided to ask the civic committee of the Commercial club to meet with the federation committee. Mr. H. O. Garvey, chairman of the Commercial club committee, was communicated with by telephone, and Thursday at half after 2 o'clock at the Commercial club rooms was agreed to a conference of the two committees. Mrs. S. R. Tuttle, chairman of the federation's civic committee urges all the members to be present and the presidents of the individual clubs and others interested are also invited. A decision by Judge Welch of California in a billboard case in San Jose was read. Judge Welch held that the billboard is as much of a nuisance as a pigsty, that it is uncouth in appearance and detrimental to the peace of mind of the residents of property in its neighborhood. Backed by the legal opinion and with the aid of the business men the federation hopes to oust the billboard from Topeka.

Among the reasons given by the civic committee in its protest against the billboards are that they are unsightly; that they hide a dumping ground for the garbage and the neighborhood health and cleanliness; that they detract from the value of adjoining property; and that they are not allowed the vacant lots which they screen might be improved and beautified by their owners and add to the glory of Topeka Beautiful.

Washington correspondence: Mrs. Curtis and Miss Curtis, wife and sister of Senator Charles Curtis of Kansas, have cards out for a Thursday afternoon in honor of Mrs. C. G. Dodge of Annapolis, formerly of Wamego, Kansas. Mrs. Dodge will be their guest this week.

Mrs. John T. Lagerstrom will entertain her thimble club Thursday afternoon at her home.

The Portia club will have an evening meeting tonight at the home of Mrs. S. J. Crumline. The hostesses will be Mrs. Crumline, Mrs. J. C. Allison, Mrs. E. A. Fredenburgh, Mrs. J. H. McBride, Mrs. L. M. Powell, Mrs. C. H. Seale, Mrs. E. G. Foster and Mrs. B. F. McGiffen. The husbands of the members will be guests.

In the accompanying cut is shown a simple but very smart little frock of white, striped with reds and greens. The skirt was gored, the stripes being arranged to run on the bias as explained by the cut. The bodice was trimmed with reds and greens and braid. The little rever-like pieces in front being outlined with white silk and ornamented with buttons of white, embroidered with green. The lower part of the pointed yoke, which was of cream batiste and lace, was covered by a strip of white flannel, embroidered heavily in green and edged at the top with the green braid.

The Portia club meets with Mrs. B. H. Pugh, 805 Fillmore street, Thursday afternoon.

The Oakland Forestry club will meet with Mrs. O. W. Nell at 146 Winfield avenue Friday at 2 p. m.

The most commonplace woman looks distinguished in one of those square dotted veils with borders. A Pickens' veil is like a Pickens' hat, stunning and individual.
